SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 30, 2011—The Leonardo will open The Leo Store, a retail museum shop, on Friday, Dec. 2, just in time for holiday shopping.

The Leo Store will offer a collection of unique gifts that mirror the museum's eclectic mix of science, technology and creativity, and include jewelry and clothing, electronic games and devices, smartphone accessories, art supplies and kits, as well as home accents.

The store also offers gift cards that can be redeemed for store merchandise, tickets, and even memberships.

"Selecting the perfect gift for those special people on your list can be a real challenge," said Colin Gibbs, the store manager. "At The Leo Store, you'll find a range of truly unique items, some of which you can't find anywhere else in Salt Lake. And for those particularly picky people, a Leonardo gift card is a great solution."

The Leo Store will be open during the museum's regular operating hours. Visit www.theleonardo.org/visit or call 801.531.9800 for information about specific days and hours during the holidays.
